

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 6, 2014

National History Day Award Winners

Gallatin Gateway, MT – Middle school students at Gallatin Gateway School participated in the National History Day local competition this past Friday, February 28, 2014. In this competition, students presented projects relating to this year's theme, "Rights and Responsibilities." Students used various presentation methods and project types to demonstrate their research. The winners from each category are:

Paper

1. Aidan Morton - 1992 Dream Team
2. Elsa Horgan - Chernobyl
3. Hazel Peterson - Queen Elizabeth I

Individual Exhibit

1. Emma Johnson - American Indian Movement
2. Christine Lien - A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words: Lewis Hine
3. Chanelle Diamond - Salem Witch Trials

Group Exhibit

1. Sarada Leavitt and Emi Wilson - Warless Revolutions
2. Shayla Ard and Laura Tuininga - Booker T. Washington
3. Gracie Ouellette and Megan Robbins - Clara Barton and Doctors in the Civil War

Group Website

1. Hunter Flichman, Daniel Marshall, John Marshall, and Ted Scott - Olympic Athletes

Individual Website

1. Teigen Gunter - Dodge
2. Blake Crum - Civil Rights Movement

These National History Day contest winners will travel to the state competition in Billings on March 29, 2014. GGS is excited to have so much representation at this prestigious statewide event. Winners of the state competition will then go on to present their projects at the University of Maryland in mid-June. Good luck to the GGS winners!

For more information about the winners, please contact:

Michael Herdina, 8th grade teacher

406.763.4415, ext. 21

Krob@gallatingatewayschool.com

Kim DeBruycker, Ed.D., Superintendent

406.763.4415, ext. 13

DeBruycker@gallatingatewayschool.com

###