Gallatin Gateway Student Wins Special Olympics T-shirt Contest

Gallatin Gateway, MT – Gallatin Gateway School student Emi Wilson, 7th grade, has won the Special Olympics Big Sky Area Games t-shirt design contest. Middle school students at Gallatin Gateway School participated in the contest, in which designs had to include these components: the Special Olympics logo, the dates of the games, and the words “Special Olympics Big Sky Area Games.”

The Games are taking place on April 23 – 25, 2014 at Park High School in Livingston, MT. Emi will be presented with a $25 gift card and a t-shirt with her design on it at the opening ceremonies on April 24, 2014 at 9:00am. Emi’s t-shirt design will be worn by all the athletes, coaches, and volunteers during the games. They are also for sale at the Games.
