Gallatin Gateway School Veteran's Day Assembly

The Gallatin Gateway first-grade class is hosting their annual Veteran's Day Assembly at Gallatin Gateway School. The assembly will be held on November 11, 2013 at 8:30 am. It will be held in the Gallatin Gateway School gymnasium.

The purpose of the assembly is to recognize those men and women who have served our country. They will be acknowledged through songs, art, and poems created and performed by the students at Gallatin Gateway School.

All members of the community, as well as veterans, are encouraged to attend the assembly. Veterans who would like to participate are asked to wear a uniform and to be prepared to share a brief introduction about time and place of service. Veterans who would like to participate are asked to RSVP by November 7.
